

California Wines
Wednesday, December 7th
Trapp Family Lodge Wine Cellar

“If California is not at present the favorite grape-growing country of the world, it is certainly destined to attain that rank, and also to become one of the most extensive”

Ben Truman, New York Times, 1868

Hyperbole perhaps, but not that far off the mark, and prescient for 1868.

California produces 90% of all U.S. wines. They produce more than any country outside Europe.

Even threatened, as they are, by wildfires, it’s a huge industry.

I’m quite sure that if I tallied all the wines I’ve consumed in my lifetime, (a daunting task, granted), well over half of them would be from California.

Price is $35, $10 for children (food only). Please register online @ the Trapp Family Lodge website or call or see the front desk to place reservations. 802 253-5742. Doors open @ 4:00. I suggest you arrive no later than 4:45 to avoid losing your spot or feeling rushed. People come and go during the tasting which is an informal social format. We end at 6:00
