Stowe, Vermont

April 9, 2024

To the Shareholders of Trapp Family Cooperative Housing, Inc.:

You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of Trapp Family Cooperative Housing, Inc. ("Coop One") to be held jointly with the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders of Trapp Family Cooperative Housing Two, Inc. ("Coop Two"). The joint meeting will be held at the Trapp Family Lodge, Trapp Hill Road, Stowe, Vermont, on Monday, April 22, 2024, at 9:00 A.M.

If you would like to participate remotely via the Zoom chat feature, please submit your proxy and request the Zoom registration link by emailing ownerservices@trappfamily.com

Election of Directors

The five directorships of Coop One are divided into three groups consisting of one Director in one group, and two Directors in each of the other two groups. The group for each Director is based upon when the term of each Director ends. The length of all terms is three years, with no more than two Directors elected in any one year. A Director is limited to five consecutive three year terms.

Vincent J. DeBaggis Jr., Kenneth Przysiecki, Tara Dowd, Mark Goudreau and Kevin Browne are the present Directors of Coop One. The three year terms of Vincent J. DeBaggis Jr. and Kenneth Przysiecki expire this year. The three year terms of Mark Goudreau and Tara Dowd expire in 2025. The three year term of Kevin Browne expires in 2026. Vincent J. DeBaggis Jr. and Kenneth Przysiecki are standing for reelection for additional three year terms. Accordingly, two Directors are to be elected at this year's annual meeting. The Board of Directors has recommended that Vincent J. DeBaggis Jr. and Kenneth Przysiecki be elected as Directors. Biographical summaries for them are included with this letter.

Auditing Firm

The Board of Directors has selected Federman, Lally & Remis LCC, with an office in Farmington, Connecticut, to be Coop One's auditing firm for the year ended December 31, 2024.

Quorum and Votes

A quorum of 20% of the Shareholders is required for the meeting and a majority of the votes cast determines the outcome of each matter.

THE DIRECTORS RECOMMEND THAT ALL SHAREHOLDERS RETURN SIGNED PROXIES EVEN IF THEY INTEND TO ATTEND THE MEETING TO ENSURE THAT THEIR VOTES ARE COUNTED. A SHAREHOLDER ATTENDING THE MEETING CAN REVOKE HIS OR HER PROXY AT THE MEETING AND VOTE IN PERSON.

The Directors hope that you will be able to attend personally and urge you to do so if possible. In addition to taking the votes on the proxy questions the meeting will be used to review the current operations of Coop One.

A certified financial statement for the year ending December 31, 2023 will be posted on the Guest House owners internet web page (www.trappfamily.com/gh).

Annual Joint Meeting of the Directors

After the adjournment of the annual joint meeting of the Shareholders of Coop One and Coop Two, the Directors of Coop One and Coop Two will hold their joint annual meeting at the Trapp Family Lodge to consider and, to the extent necessary, vote and/or take actions with respect to those matters set forth in the accompanying notice of the joint meeting of the Directors. The joint meeting of the Directors is open to the Shareholders. In the event that any materials are distributed to the Directors before their meeting on which action will be taken at the meeting, copies will be made available to the Shareholders on the Guest House owners internet web page referred to above.

Sincerely yours,

Vincent J. DeBaggis Jr.
President

Cooperative One

Kenneth M. Przysiecki, resides in Glastonbury, Connecticut with his wife Beatrice (Bea). He received his BS in Business Administration from American International College, Springfield, MA. Ken is a Certified Public Accountant and has worked with privately held companies in both public accounting (the now infamous Arthur Andersen) and as the chief financial officer of several privately held companies in both the manufacturing and service sectors. He was instrumental in taking one private company public, which ended up on the NASDAQ exchange. Ken has served as a board member of several public companies (Chair of the Audit Committee of one) and non-profit organizations. Ken is currently the Director of School Finances for the Archdiocese of Hartford, Connecticut responsible for 53 Elementary schools and 4 High Schools. Ken and his wife Bea have two children and four grandchildren. They are founding owners in Village I and have a unit in Village II (four in total). Their favorite week is the week before Christmas where they own 2 units so the entire family can enjoy Trapps and Stowe together as a family. It is Ken's desire to assist in keeping the Trapp Guest House experience on a sound financial footing for our generation and the next.

Vincent DeBaggis Vin has served as a member of Coop 1 since 2015. He is a licensed Property & Casualty Agent with Rogers Gray Insurance. Prior to his becoming a licensed agent Vin spent many years in Financial Services. His experience in business and finance have positioned him to serve the Coops in various capacities as a member of and chair of several of the task groups. Vin and his wife Judy make their home on Nantucket island. They enjoy island life and spending time with their 7 children and 5 grandchildren who visit often. Vin serves the local community on Nantucket as President of the Nantucket Rotary Club, Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus Council, and as an active member of St. Mary Our Lady of the Isle Parish. He is an avid biker and golfer and can often be seen riding the trails at Trapp Family Lodge where he and Judy were married in the concert meadow in 2012.

Cooperative Two

Roy Sokoloski AIA, is a registered architect and small business owner of ALSA architecture + engineering + preservation located in New York City. He has 35 years of experience in building design for both new construction and restoration with specific expertise in historic preservation, including many notable landmark properties. Roy was elected councilman in Northvale, NJ, a suburb of Bergen County in Northern New Jersey, and is also a member of the planning Board and Zoning Board of Appeals in Northvale, NJ, Chairman of the Architectural Review Board of the Town of Riverhead, NY, and past president of Woodcliff Park Homeowners Association, a 200-unit summer bungalow community on eastern Long Island, NY. Roy and his wife Barbara have two grown daughters and are active members of their community. They have been Guest House owners since the original construction of Village II in 1986. They enjoy travel, music, and staying busy.

Betsy Hoffman. Betsy Hoffman and her husband Peter, live in Stanfordville, New York. They have been coming to Stowe for over 30 years and were married here in 1991. They have been guest house owners since 2002. "I am excited to have the opportunity to serve on the Board. The integrity of the community here is so conducive to the family experience. Our guest house is our home away from home. It's where we come to have quality family time away from our busy schedules. Our children have been coming up here with us over the years and we have built a wonderful family tradition. Now our grandchildren come as well. We love the outdoors, family breakfasts and evenings by the fireplace with the kids. We all enjoy the friendships and experiences we have had here over the years." Betsy was a VP of equity trading in finance for over 15 years. She has been an executive assistant and a program coordinator in education at Bard College. Betsy is a graduate of Bowling Green State University. She is an avid outdoor enthusiast and photographer who enjoys hiking, gardening, winter sports and cooking.
