

South African Wines
Saturday, June 3rd
Trapp Family Lodge Wine Cellar or
Front Lawn (weather dependant)

South Africa began producing wines in the 17th century to supply the ships of the Dutch East India Company as they rounded the cape.

One of the greatest wines in the world at that time came from the Constantia Winery near Cape Town in 1659.

South African wines lost popularity during the period of Apartheid but since then have reclaimed significance in the international wine market.

We'll be tasting two whites and three reds.

Hope to see you

Price is $35, $10 for children (food only). Please register online @ the Trapp Family Lodge website or call or see the front desk to place reservations. 802 253-5742. Doors open @ 4:00. I suggest you arrive no later than 4:45 to avoid losing your spot or feeling rushed. People come and go during the tasting which is an informal social format. We end at 6:00
