

Wines from Slovenia and Croatia
Wednesday, November 29th
Trapp Family Lodge Wine Cellar

“Slovenia was the first Yugoslav country to declare independence (in 1992) and the only one whose wine has always been acknowledged and drunk in Western Europe.”

Hugh Johnson and Jancis Robinson: The World Atlas of Wine

Slovenia has been influenced by Italy and Austria, and most Slovenian grapes are also found in those two countries. They are known primarily for their whites. We will taste three whites from Slovenia and two reds from Croatia.

Come and be adventuresome.

Price is $35. $10 for children or non-drinkers (food only). Please register online at the Trapp Family Lodge website or call 802 253-5742 to place reservations. We begin @ 4:00. Please arrive no later than 4:45 to avoid losing your spot or feeling rushed. People come and go during the tasting which is an informal social format. We end at 6:00
